As I'll cover later Some states have gone with a lower minimum age.

The catch, though, is that they can only sell/give drinks to those who are 21 years or older.

Its lower sports gambling age goes along with other unique rules.

Usually, though, it works well and ensures that you can place bets in the respective state.

It allows you to experience the thrills of sports gambling without breaking the law.

As a result: The minimum sports betting age in most states is 21 years old.

Only Wyoming offers a regulated market where 18-year-olds can wager.

Otherwise, you'll need to wait until being able to place lawful wagers.

Tying the Spread or Push

-110 refers to the "juice" that you will pay on your spread bet.

What does the "+" and "-" mean in sports betting?

However, there is a little more to it than that.

If the underdog loses the game 14-12, they would cover the spread: 12 points scored + 3 points spread = 15.

A + next to a number indicates the underdog.

-3 means the team is a three-point favorite.

The higher the "+" number, such as +400, the higher the payout and the less likely the even occurring in the eyes of the books.
