Loss of the first bet (total loss of one betting unit)

This system doesn't guarantee that you will win, but it can help you get the most out of your luck.

It is also possible that you will get a negative result when calculating the first value.

The result is that your value is negative, which means nothing else than: if you are unsure about this, then this bet just doesn't pay off.

In any case, for such a strategy it is advisable to bet with a betting company that allows a live cashout option.
