DC fans are relishing in joy after watching Black Adam

Black Adam primes itself for high-octane action

Fans are convinced that the real reason behind the movie getting bad ratings on Rotten Tomatoes has more to do with a deliberate tactic to bring the film down r ather than a depiction of the critics's genuine opinions.

WILMINGTON, NC (WWAY) - The office of Attorney General Josh Stein has announced reports of "brushing scams" and are sending a warning to consumers.

According to the office, brushing scams take place when someone receives a packa ge from a business or company containing items that they never ordered.

They do this so they can post a fake review online to boost the product's ra ting and popularity on the third-party platform.

While it seems harmless, it most likely means that your personal information (na) Tj T* BT /I

The office says while these "brushing" scams usually don't cause i mmediate harm, your leaked personal information could make you vulnerable to ano ther type of scam or identity theft in the future.

Notify the retailer: Most businesses encourage you to report fraudulent activity for security purposes. You should let them know that you received a package bas ed on a fraudulent purchase so that they can take the appropriate steps to preve nt it from happening again.

Do not send money for an unsolicited package: Contact the retailer directly and ask whether they are willing to pay for the return to them or let you keep the p roduct at no cost to you. You should not pay for any return.

Monitor your accounts: Keep an eye on your bank statements and credit reports to be sure that your more sensitive personal information has not been leaked. Cons
