There are tons of blackjack variations available, especially in online casinos. While some may offer larger win potential through the usage of side bets and multipliers, if you're looking for the absolute most optimized blackjack strategy, you should stick to games that offer some of the most player-friendly rules.

Click the "i" button on the game to see the return to player (RTP) percentage.

Just make sure you check the RTP before you start playing to lock in the best odds.

Blackjack Classic: 99.

But when you play Live Dealer blackjack, which involves real-life dealers live-streamed in from physical tables, the cards are dealt from a shoe until about two-thirds or three-quarters of the decks are played through.
