Finally, be sure to enter any bonus codes that you have into the appropriate box on the registration screen(s).

If you want to cut to the chase in your selection process because you want to bet on a big game or match, the center section is a good place to start.

However, there are a few elements of every online sportsbook to consider before you settle on the one(s) you're going to use.

A good site will have options for every single game for each league it covers on a daily basis.

If you plan to bet on sports while you're out and about - particularly on vacations or trips - it's a good idea to bet happy with your sportsbook's

mobile app performance

The best sites, though, are lightning-fast on both sides of the transactions.

In a sense, the presence of live game streams through a site is analogous to the wall-sized television screens emblematic of retail sportsbooks.

On the other hand, if you choose to play on a site with its headquarters and servers outside of the US, you may be opening yourself to some added risk.

Come tax time, taxpayers are often surprised when a lucky payday becomes a tax return headache.

Here are some tips so a fun activity doesn't add up to tax trouble.

Taxation of gambling income

lottery or sweepstakes prizes

The winnings may be cash, but would also include the fair market value (FMV) of prizes such as a car, boat, house, or vacation package.

There is a threshold that will automatically trigger reporting of your winnings to the IRS:

If you do not itemize, you cannot deduct any gambling losses during the year.

If reselling non-cash merchandise prizes, be cautious of the reported FMV.
