These include a hit, stand, double down, split, and surrender.

4.

A player may place an insurance bet on the dealer having blackjack, which represents half of the original bet and is only profitable if the dealer has an ace and a ten.

Players at blackjack have the option of using a blackjack strategy card, which provides an outline of all outcomes and situations possible in the game.

Learning the outline and following it will allow the player to make the most beneficial decisions, resulting in consistent and positive results.

9.

Blackjack players have the ability to split their hands and create multiple hands.

5.

Please keep in mind, however, that when splitting Aces, a player does not get a

Blackjack if they receive a 10 to give them a 21.
