Baccarat History - Learn About One of The Oldest Card Games

Baccarat's history is said to go all the way back to medieval Italy.

The origins of the card game are debatable, but most believe it was created in the 1400s by a man named Felix Falguiere in or Felix Falguiere.

King Charles VIII and his noblemen loved the game, and Chemin de Fer remained a hit with the French aristocracy for centuries.

Baccarat also caught on in England, where Ian Fleming learned how to play the game before creating the world's most famous baccarat player: James Bond.

As more time passed, baccarat cropped up in South America and in the Caribbean, where under the name of Punto Banco, it adapted to the local culture.

This kind of baccarat is what we now know as "American Baccarat."
