At OddAlerts, we harness the power of data to predict the probability of the away team scoring more than once in a game.

By using this model, bettors don't need to have a deep understanding of the teams and players involved, as the model provides the necessary insight to make informed decisions.

Maybe that's because of how under-appreciated it is within the betting community.

Pro users can filter to their hearts content, capping value, odds, or probability.

Finding value bets for the best home teams can often come down to getting on the games early, and that's why we offer the ability to view 5+ days ahead on t his page, pulling in the latest 1x2 odds from Pinnacle, Bet365, and 1xBet.

Beating the bookies is hard, so to stand a chance you need an edge over them.

40 = 71.
